

April 1865

A group of women in COLUMBUS, Mississippi marched to Friendship Cemetery to put flowers on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers who had died at SHILOH. They met some resistance, but the generously then showed by decorating.

both gray & blue grows made national headlines